iv). Issue faced by Banks in Title Investigation Report (TIR) certificates, Non Encumbrance Certificate (NEC) in Revenue Department, Govt of Meghalaya

Sl No	Issues	Remedial measures
1	Non Encumbrance Certificate (NEC) is issued for a period of 12 years only in East Khasi Hills, though the minimum period for the Bank is 13 years.	Revenue Department East Khasi hills is requested to issue NEC for a minimum period of 13 years like in some other districts of the State (Ribhoi, Garo Hills). For loans above Rs.1 Crores the NEC is required for a minimum period of 30 years
2	Renewal of Non Encumbrance Certificate (NEC) is entertained only after surrendering the original copy which is retained with the Banks (part of the loan documents). This creates problem to the Banks and borrowers when the loan limit is required to be enhanced.	Revenue Department is requested to renew the NEC without insisting for original certificate.
3	Bank empanelled Lawyers require to conduct search report in Sub-Registrar Office (SRO) before the Title Investigation Report (TIR) is issued. As per the current SRO procedures it takes around 2-3 months' time to get the search Report. As such sanction of loan proposals is delayed.	Sub Registrar Office, Government of Meghalaya is requested to permit Banks lawyers to conduct search report along with SRO officials for compilation of TIRs. This will go a long way in processing loan faster and serve the customers better.

Therefore the Government is requested to resolve the above issues to increase the loan portfolio and serve the customers better.
