Shri Rakesh Kumar Ravi, Regional Manager, SBI, Regional Business Office, Aizawl welcomed all the participants.

Shri Lalkhawlun Hangshing, DGM (B&O), expressed his deep appreciation and thanked Dr. Renu Sharma, IAS for her presence despite her busy schedule. He also thanked all Government Officials, RBI, NABARD, SIDBI and other stake holders present in the meeting for a meaningful discussion. He appreciated the bankers for achieving 23% of ACP target during the first quarter and urged all the member banks operating in the State of Mizoram to achieve more than 100% of ACP target for FY 2022-23. He also mentioned that the CD ratio and priority sector lending increased during the 1st Quarter of FY 2022-23 and requested all banks to give their best efforts to increase their portfolio in Priority Sector for over all development of economy of the State.

Shri P Shimrah, General Manager, RBI mentioned in his speech that although the CD Ratio has increased from 51.84% to 54.72% during Jun'22 quarter, the overall CD ratio of 10 banks out of 24 banks is below 40% which is dragging the overall improvement of CD ratio. He said that RBI had conducted Empowered Committee meeting on MSME for the Jun'22 quarter on 10th August 2022. He stated that the credit to MSME clusters is almost stagnant for last one year. As a chairman of EC-MSME, he had advised SBI and MRB to review the status of MSME lending of their banks. He also urged all other member banks to start financing of MSME cluster at the earliest. Shri P Shimrah, General Manager, RBI pointed out with dissatisfaction for non-conducting of any DCC meeting for the Jun'22 quarter and advised to conduct the DCC meeting of Jun'22 quarter immediately. He advised LDMs to brief the forum on reasons for not adhering to the schemes. He said that Lead Bank Scheme may also ensure that DCC/DLRC are not clubbed as these meetings are required to be held separately. He also requested all the allotted banks to cover remaining 54 villages under Roadmap of villages below 2000 population. He also mentioned importance of Financial Literacy at the Block level. Financial Literacy Centre has been set up and functional covering 15 Blocks in the State, the Centres for Financial Literacy have been set up at present in 5 Blocks and RBI is working for covering the remaining 11 blocks in the State by CFL. He also pointed out regarding long pending issue of set up of RSETI at Lunglei by HDFC. He urged all bankers to adhere to RBI's instruction on Currency Management including circulation of Clean Note Policy, sorting of Notes and revolving of FICN. He also stressed on importance of BCs operations and its impact on customers services.

Shri K V S S L V Prasad Rao, General Manager, NABARD appreciated progress in the 1st quarter of FY 2022-23. He deliberated on the ACP target approved in the last SLBC meeting of Mar'22 quarter and said that target for Agriculture Credit is subject to the target stipulated by DFS. He suggested that the ACP target for agriculture may be revised as per the letter F.No.12/3/2022-AC dated 04.07.2022 addressed to all SLBC Conveners by DFS, Ministry of Finance, Govt. of India.

After deliberations, it was resolved that the target for MCAB, MRB and Commercial Banks would be Rs. 51.91 crore, Rs. 226.02 crore and Rs. 355.98 crore respectively, as indicated by DFS. Accordingly, the targets fixed for Commercial Banks in the previous SLBC meeting may be increased proportionately. SLBC may advise all the banks to revise targets under Agriculture. He briefly presented the developmental and promotional initiatives of NABARD in the State of Mizoram. The detailed presentation was circulated to all the members. He informed that NABARD would be willing to work together with the concerned State governments in implementing developmental works in the State.

Dr. Renu Sharma, IAS, Chief Secretary, Govt. of Mizoram and Chairman said that since last reviewed meeting on 21st June, 2022 for Mar'22 quarter, banks posted on a positive note has been pointed out and that certain improvement in CD Ratio and certain improvement in the activity that has taken up notwithstanding that there are certain number of banks which have been pulling down this upward swing otherwise would have achieved, these banks needs to pull up their socks and do it because it has been happening repeatedly for long period of time that 5/6 banks are showing poor performance or poor initiative in most of the target that has been set. She also said that banks must increase Priority Sector Lending advances and pay attention to Govt. sponsorship Schemes for development of rural economy. Mizoram performance is good, per capita income is good. If we can revitalise the banking sector, it will be really a big boost for the economy. She urged bankers to concentrate lending on a few sectors like Agriculture and allied activity, Animal Husbandry, Fisheries and MSME sector and improve monitoring as well. She also pointed out that CD Ratio although increased to 54.72%, there are large number of banks which are below the expected 40% which is not acceptable at all. She urged those banks to have more uniform action to improve their CD Ratio. She said that DCC meeting to be held before SLBC and make it as a rule that we would check on and see whether DCC has taken place before fixing the SLBC meeting date or not. She also expressed happiness that RBI had conducted Incognito visits to find out what actually is happening and from the observation corrective action will be taking place. She also suggested as per the RBI guidelines to invite Hon'ble Chief Minister who is also Finance Minister of the State in the next SLBC meeting, it will energise the banking operations and provide a fresh momentum to the way we are moving on and also increase the enthusiasm of Officers. She hoped that this meeting comes to a good conclusion and are able to move ahead for the development of Mizoram and leave no stone unturned in the task.

Smt. Lalnilawmi, Coordinator, then, initiated the proceedings of the meeting.
